

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN: ARCHDIOCESAN JUSTICE CONVOCATION

“JUSTICE AND SOLIDARITY: CARING FOR REFUGEES AND IMMIGRANTS”

Saturday, 11/4/2017, at BC High School, 8am to 1:30pm

Pope Francis has declared that “the only solution to the migration crisis is solidarity.” He appeals to “dioceses, parishes, religious institutes, organizations and individual Christians: we are all called to welcome our brothers and sisters who are fleeing war, hunger, violence and cruel conditions of life” (General Audience, 10/26/2016)

Come to the Convocation and learn the facts about Refugees and Immigrants, understand the integral linkages between Catholic Social Teaching and care for Migrants, find out what activities are already underway – globally, nationally, locally, identify what more needs to be done and in particular, reflect/ponder/decide what specific, practical actions YOU and your parishes can take to give witness to your faith.

FEATURING

- Greetings from Cardinal Sean O’Malley, Archbishop of Boston
- Keynote Address by Rev. J. Bryan Hehir, Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services
- Keynote Address by Sean Callahan, President and CEO, Catholic Relief Services
- Keynote Panel chaired by Debbie Rambo, President of Catholic Charities Boston (CCAB) with presenter/panelist Marjean Perhot, Director of Refugee and Immigrant Services, CCAB and other panelists from parishes and migrant communities and agencies
- Holy Mass celebrated by Rev. J. Bryan Hehir
- Extended Networking Break with coffee and light snacks featuring a wide range of exhibitors, parish representatives, and ethnic communities throughout the Archdiocese

To register online, please CLICK HERE

For more information, please contact Jennifer Murphy or Sister Marian Batho at socialjustice@rcab.org or (617)746-5738 / (617)746-5637