

For the health and wellbeing of our community, the 2021 Cushing-Gavin Awards will once again be held virtually.

This will not dampen the spirit of celebration or the importance of the awards.

Join us at 6pm for a virtual cocktail hour where you'll have a chance to greet others, mingle, and congratulate winners via breakout rooms.

At 7pm, The Labor Guild's Executive Board Member Paul McCarthy will emcee the broadcast of this year's award celebration which you'll easily be able to livestream on any device. Like years past, each award recipient will have an opportunity to address the audience as they receive their award.

"It is easy for all of us to be selfish, and to be anxious only about those things that touch our own life and fortune...We are discovering how very much we need each other, how much we depend on each other, how much we can learn from each other."

"Set out on that road tonight, and do not turn back. Do not go as labor or management, as employer or employee, but go as human persons who want a better world for the generations to come and are willing to work toward it."

- Richard Cardinal Cushing, 1967

A "VIRTUAL" SALUTE TO THE LABOR RELATIONS COMMUNITY IN MASSACHUSETTS

CELEBRATE WITH US ONLINE DECEMBER 3

Sponsorships start as low at $50.00

Dear Members and Friends:

The Labor Guild is so pleased to announce our 55th annual Cushing Gavin Award celebration.

On Friday December 3, the Labor Guild will hold its 55th Cushing Gavin Awards Celebration. This year's celebration once again will be held virtually.

The Guild will be honoring the most prestigious of their professions. People who have spent a lifetime honing and practicing their skills. Four outstanding professionals for their compliment of work they have produced to bring them within the spotlight of competence, vision, and integrity in the field of Labor Management Relations, who have been selected by people who have been honored themselves to receive this award.

We are grateful that for 55 years the Labor Guild as an agency of the Archdiocese of Boston and with the blessing of the Catholic Church has been able to be the bridge to promote good relations between Labor and Management. Our friends and membership have been a broad-based representation of the labor relations community including academics, arbitrators, legal counsel, public agency staff, as well as management and union representatives.

The Labor Guild at our core is rooted in respect for human dignity and to promote economic and social justice. We are responsible for inspiring and supporting men and women to act with conscience, know-how, and courage in labor-management relations

This event is the foundation of our fundraising which allows us to pursue other opportunities and directly supports the Guild's mission.

Such a diverse audience enhances a spirit of community, acknowledging that within the various perspectives of each of our constituencies, there is attention to the needs of the common good and our mission of economic and social justice.

Cordially

*David Kowalski
Executive Director*
